ORDER DISMISSING PETITION FOR REVIEW

On March 14, 2001, General Electric Company ("GE") filed a Voluntary Motion to Dismiss Appeal ("Motion") in the above-captioned matter. GE explains that, based upon a consent decree executed and entered into by the parties to this matter, GE's appeal is now moot. GE further states that counsel for U.S. EPA, New England Region, does not oppose a dismissal. Based upon the foregoing representations, GE's Motion is hereby granted, and the appeal is dismissed with prejudice.

So ordered.
