

EXPLORING NEW HORIZONS

Fifth State & Local
CLIMATE CHANGE
Partners Conference

LOEWS ANNAPOLIS HOTEL
ANNAPOLIS, MARYLAND
NOVEMBER 20-22, 2002

HOSTED BY

U.S. ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

CO-SPONSORS

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Environmental Council of the States • International City/County Management Association

International Council for Local Environmental Initiatives

Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory • National Association of State Energy Officials

National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration • National Renewable Energy Laboratory

Smartgrowth Network • STAPPA/ALAPCO • U.S. Department of Agriculture, Forest Service

Planned Sessions

Science and Policy Updates

Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency Opportunities

Voluntary Greenhouse Gas Registries and Trading

Schools and Universities – Educating and Mitigating

New Tools for State and Local Governments

Cutting Edge Transportation Technology

Smart Growth – Smart for the Climate?

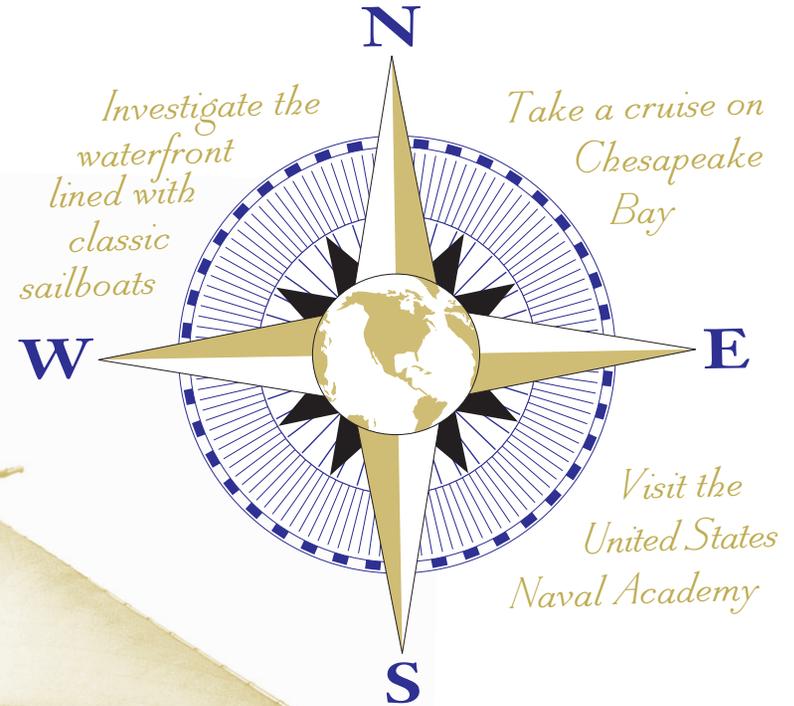

Taking Advantage of Federal Programs

Cooling the Urban Heat Island

Climate and Human Health

Adaptation

New: REGIONAL BREAKOUTS
Gather with state and local officials from your area to discuss regional issues and build collaborative networks.

Come explore historic Annapolis as we navigate the ever changing waters of climate change science and mitigation.

Please join us!

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Agenda, Hotel Details, Directions, and more are on our Web site.

www.epa.gov/globalwarming/annapolis

For additional information contact our contractor Sandy Seymour, ICF Consulting, 802.496.6034, sseymour@icfconsulting.com or Andrea Denny, USEPA, 202.564.3467, denny.andrea@epa.gov