ORDER

Whereas, Complainant filed the Initial Administrative Order (“AO”) against Respondent in this matter on March 10, 2021. On April 21, 2021, Respondent filed a response to the AO where it, among other things, requested a hearing. On May 11, 2021, Complainant filed a motion for extension of time to delay the hearing so that the parties could “conduct settlement negotiations regarding an Administrative Order on Consent.” I granted that motion until July 12, 2021. On July 8, 2021, Complainant filed a second motion for an extension of time in order to continue good faith settlement negotiations, which said second motion I granted until October 12, 2021. On October 7, 2021, I granted a third motion for extension of time. On February 14, 2022, I granted a fourth motion for extension of time.

On January 30, 2023, I issued a Scheduling Order. The parties have indicated that they intend to settle the matter and a settlement agreement is imminent. They have, on May 9, 2023, filed a joint motion for extension of time in order to finalize said settlement.

It is therefore ORDERED that this Joint Motion be, and hereby is, GRANTED until June 12, 2023.

Dated this 9th day of May, 2023.
