ORDER GRANTING EXTENSION OF ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCESS

The parties have jointly moved for a four- week extension of the Alternative Dispute Resolution Process in order that complainant may review information provided by Respondent pursuant to Complainant's 308 information request. The information sought relates to Respondent's contention that pollutants in the discharges came from a corn field rather than Respondent's concentrated animal feeding operations. Alternative Dispute Resolution Process expired on July 19, 2010 For good cause having been shown, the ADR process be extended for 30 days, or through and including August 19, 2010.
