Ms. Vaughn,

I have been in mediation yesterday and court most of today, so I am just getting the chance to see this. I am confused.

According to my calendar, I have a deadline for a Response to EPA's most recent supplemental motion due on Monday, September 10th. The timing of this decision is curious to me. I have the motion almost complete and will attempt to complete it and forward it over the weekend.

As for a conference call date/time, I will have to get back to you when I have had the opportunity to digest this latest.
