On March 22, 2012, Chief Judge Biro's office received a response from the Complainant accepting the offer to participate in the Alternative Dispute Resolution process to be held outside the Office of Administrative Law Judges.

In a previous conversation held between U.S. EPA and the Respondent on March 21, 2012, the parties agreed and have requested to be allowed the use of a neutral provided by EPA's Conflict Prevention and Resolution Center (CPRC).

Accordingly, this proceeding is STAYED until June 21, 2012, while the parties work towards a resolution utilizing EPA's CPRC process. Furthermore, the parties are directed to file with the undersigned a Joint Status Report by April 27, 2012, and each month thereafter, until the expiration of the stay.
