Dear Mr. Hall,

Regarding your recent filing. As this matter has been fully briefed, parties wishing to file additional documents must request and receive leave of the Board. Therefore, before the filing can be added to the record before the Board, you must file a motion requesting leave to file. The motion must be served on all other parties and must fully explain why the filing is relevant to the matter before the Board and why it should be admitted to the record at this late date.
