ORDER ALLOCATING ORAL ARGUMENT TIME

In rescheduling oral argument in this case for Thursday, May 22, 2014, the Environmental Appeals Board expanded the allotted argument time from sixty to ninety minutes, to ensure adequate time is provided for a full exploration of the issues in dispute. The Board now divides the ninety minutes as follows: (1) forty-five minutes for the Town; and (2) forty-five minutes for the Region. The Town will proceed first and may reserve up to five minutes of its allotted time for rebuttal. The Region will proceed second.

So ordered.
