Appeal6 NPDES Appeal No. 08-23, the Honorable Judge Charles7 Sheehan residing.8 THE COURT: Good morning all. Could9 counselors introduce themselves for the record?10 MR. BUKHARI: My name is Samir Bukhari;rh11 representing Region 1 in this matter.12 MS. PHILLIPS: My name is Dianne Phillips,rh13 a partner with Holland &amp; Knight in Boston and I14 represent Exxon Mobile Oil Corporation in this matter.15 THE COURT: Thank you. Please feel free to16 take seats if you're more comfortable that way.17 I appreciate your time this morning. Let me18 first do a little review of where the case stands, at19 least as far as we can glean it from the files today20 and then proceed with some questions. The petition was21 filed back in October 2008 so a number of months have22 certainly passed, three motions for extensions of time |
| 1 ALSO PRESENT:2 David R. Heckler, Esq.3 Environmental Protection Agency45 Eurika Durr6 Environmental Protection Agency7 1200 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW8 Mail Code 1103B9 Washington, DC 2046010111213141516171819202122  | 1 granted during that period. In the last most recent2 status report of I believe June 2, the parties indicate3 the drafts of the revised permit would be circulated4 three weeks, for the Region to get it to Exxon and5 three weeks back for Exxon to get it to the Region.6 Can you tell us first if those transmissions occur on7 time so that the 14 is met?8 MR. BUKHARI: They did, Your Honor.9 THE COURT: Okay, that's good. The reason I10 ask is because I think its important before we go too11 far to make clear that the early threshold steps have12 transpired.13 And I needed to mention with me on the bench14 here is Senior Counsel David Heckler, who may have15 questions as well.16 Mr. Bukhari, can you tell us about your sense17 of the status today with negotiations?18 MR. BUKHARI: Your Honor, first of all wd19 like to thank the Board for their patience in allowing20 the parties to forte negotiated settlement of this21 dispute that has entailed complicated issues, technical22 issues, legal issues, as well as logistical issues, as  |

| 1 well as a significant bedding process at each stage.2 I'll answer your question by describing what3 transpired since the filing of Region 2, the4 parties' June 2 status report --5 THE COURT: Okay.6 MR. BUKHARI: -- as well as what we see the7 immediate next steps as being and the time necessary to8 complete those steps. Shortly following the submission9 of the parties' status report on June 2, in mid-June10 the Region submitted a revised draft permit reflecting11 the parties' discussions to date to Exxon Mobile for12 their review and comment. The schedule was for Exxon13 to review that permit modification language in return14 it was a markup as well as a draft M.O.U. some weeks15 later. And we received that submission from the16 company late last week.17 We have since then reviewed the documents and18 held internal discussions and our review is ongoing,19 although we can report that we've identified one20 technical issue that will require an unavoidable21 consultation with our Region 1 in Shomburg(ph), but we22 don't expect that to be a significant issue.                         | 1 agree on the terms of that permit modification, we will2 essentially attach that to this M.O.U. which will3 describe the role that, in essence of the draft, as4 well as the timing of issuance of the finding and the5 interim step conditions that need to occur prior to6 issuing that final permit modification.7 THE COURT: So the M.O.U. then relates8 merely to timing, is that right?9 MR. BUKHARI: Its a timing process oriented10 document, yes.11 THE COURT: And is that still up in the air12 as well, the M.O.U.?13 MR. BUKHARI: Well, we received the M.O.U.14 from the company late last week and we have had15 internal discussions over it but several of the issues16 raised are easily addressed through drafting17 adjustments and we've had discussions over these points18 with counsel for Exxon. And we are now focusing in on19 the interim steps or the time associated with the20 interim steps that will precede final permit issuance.21 So that's the next point that we're considering, we22 expect to move to that by mid-week.         |
| 1 We've also identified several marginal issues2 that we based on conversations with counsel we believe3 to be addressed through drafting adjustments. We --4 at this point I would add we only just received these5 documents and we are moving through them as quickly as6 possible and there is the possibility of coming across7 an issue of more significance but we're optimistic8 given the common goal I think that accounted for Exxon9 Mobile attached and the common goal of reaching a10 negotiated agreement here, that we have confidence that11 we can work through any issues that do come up.12 So that's where we stand --13 THE COURT: Let me ask if I may about your14 mysterious reference to an M.O.U. to memorialize15 certain aspects of the settlement. What does that16 mean?17 MR. BUKHARI: The M.O.U. will address timing18 of the issuance of the -- it will address development19 of the draft permit modification and it says what will20 be trying to do is to agree on the terms of a proposed21 current modification which will issue for public22 comment. Once we arrive at that, once we arrive and | 1 THE COURT: Okay, let me ask you at this2 point, Ms. Phillips, do you have anything to add by the3 way of clarification or supplementation to what just4 been said.5 MS. PHILLIPS: Thank you, Your Honor. No, that6 summarizes it pretty well. I just would add I guess7 that with the summer months and the vacations and the8 management levels of approval it did take us a little9 bit longer than we had hoped to get the documents out.10 But we do agree that we are very, very close in11 substance and most issues are drafting related.12 There's still, you know, its never done until its13 done but we feel very confident and have put a lot of14 work into and come a long way since last fall,15 including a significant investment in design work to16 redesign the facilities to achieve a better water17 quality result.18 THE COURT: So how high up has the document19 or the tentative agreements to date been seen by Exxon20 management?21 MS. PHILLIPS: They have been seen by, because22 of Exxon's approach, they have actually been seen in a |

| 1 preliminary basis by the person who needs to see them,2 the highest level, and that's what took the extra time.3 THE COURT: And what about, Mr. Bukhari,4 what about in the Region, how high has the approval5 gone or the review gone to date?6 MR. BUKHARI: Your Honor, the chief of the7 initial permitting branch, David Webster, and who is8 here today and has been intimately involved in all9 stages of this negotiation, so we feel comfortable that10 we are on the correct side of the track, the corporate11 management side, and I will obviously brief my regional12 counsel and my immediate superior so we are --13 THE COURT: So is the level of review at the14 Regions -- on the Regions side at the same level as15 that on Exxon's to date; the same level of authority16 having giving an eye to this on both sides?17 MR. BUKHARI: We have not yet briefed our18 active regional administrator on this matter. We don't19 believe that will be a controversial issue, we believe20 the environmental results here and the resolution of21 the current appeal is a development to be (inaudible)22 so we feel confident that those approvals will come. | 1 MR. BUKHARI: Two weeks from Friday.2 THE COURT: From this Friday? So let me3 just make sure I understand, it's a little hard to4 hear. Two weeks from this Friday you think you'd have5 a final agreement; is that what I understood, clarify6 if that's not correct.7 MR. BUKHARI: I would say that that would be8 aspirational and that's what we're shooting for. The9 other steps that need to occur are the -- and I think10 it's reasonable to assume that we can come to agreement11 on some of the terms of the documents. The other12 pieces that need to happen prior to actually resolving13 the appeal include drafting and execution and filing of14 the notice of withdrawal of contested conditions, the15 drafting and filing of a notice of voluntary dismissal16 by the company, as well as internal briefings for our17 management, our acting regional administrator will sign18 the notice of withdrawal so we think that that's a good19 opportunity to bring him up to speed on exactly what20 happening here and Ms. Phillips has agreed that needs21 to occur on the Exxon Mobile side.22 And the reason I'm pushing somewhat, Your                       |
| 1 THE COURT: So standing here today, how soon2 would you think you would have an agreement that you3 could take forward that's been signed off on by all the4 right people because that seems like the first step we5 need to address before we talk about more time.6 MR. BUKHARI: Your Honor, let me just describe7 exactly what the next steps are from our prospective8 and then I'll try to give a sense of how much time it9 will take to implement these actions.10 We -- the immediate next steps entailed are11 coming to terms of the O.E.D., exact form of the12 proposed current modification and the M.O.U. Once that13 happens and we expect to submit our comments, the14 Region's comments on those two operative settlement15 documents by Friday to the company, we then expect a16 reasonably expeditious, if not corresponding17 expeditious review by the company of our suggestions18 and proposals and then to come to final agreement on19 any open issues we would hope by the following week.20 THE COURT: Excuse me, by what time?21 MR. BUKHARI: By two weeks.22 THE COURT: Two weeks from now?   | 1 Honor, is that both counsel for the Region and Exxon2 Mobile have vacations long planned for mid-August so3 we're doubling our efforts to wrap this up within the4 next two weeks.5 With that said, given the level of (inaudible)6 that's occurred today and that we fully expect to, you7 know, occur even in this type of push, we can't be sure8 that we can wrap this up within the next two weeks. So9 we would like some additional leeway to take us through10 the month of August and with the understanding that the11 parties will be pushing as they have today as quickly12 as possible to reach a final resolution of this matter.13 MS. PHILLIPS: Your Honor, if I could --14 THE COURT: Yeah, go ahead, I'm sorry.15 MS. PHILLIPS: Excuse me, sir. The only other16 addition I would add to that, I agree with what counsel17 has said is that because it's a jointly issued state18 and federal permit, Exxon Mobile also appealed the19 state permit and we do need to resolve the state20 administrative appeal process which is a sort of follow21 on process, but has a little bit more logistics as22 well. And in that regard the state hearing officer has |

| 1 given the DEP and Exxon Mobile until September 10 or 8, 2 until September 8 as a stay of that proceeding to try 3 to resolve it. I think we would be looking for a 4 similar, if possible, amount of time so that the 5 proceedings could be resolved in parallel. 6 THE COURT: You indicated you need to 7 September 2 to file necessary papers to resolve the 8 appeal that was what you represented in your June 2 9 filing status report. Would that be a good day to 10 shoot for to get everything wrapped up we just 11 discussed here, the -- everything carried through, the 12 terms of the permit released and then motion to 13 withdraw contested conditions, et cetera, could follow. 14 But at least to nail down that first tip of the step; 15 would September 2 still work? 16 MS. PHILLIPS: I believe it would, Your Honor. 17 THE COURT: With DEP as well as Region 1, 18 Ms. Phillips? 19 MS. PHILLIPS: Im optimistic, Your Honor, that 20 it would work and we have a conference scheduled for 21 tomorrow with the DEP counsel to nail that procedure 22 down and barring any unforeseen circumstances from | 1 try to build in that couple extra time due to the 2 vacation. 3 THE COURT: Meaning to early September, late 4 August, early September? 5 MS. PHILLIPS: Yes. 6 THE COURT: All right. 7 MS. PHILLIPS: Yes, Your Honor. 8 THE COURT: Okay, let me ask Mr. Heckler if 9 he has any questions? 10 MR. HECKLER: No I do it. 11 THE COURT: Okay, as you can tell I think by 12 the thrust of the questions Im most concerned about 13 getting the first but crucial step behind us before we 14 talk about more time to withdraw the conditions and the 15 voluntary dismissal papers and other procedural 16 wrinkles that inevitably kick in at that point. So 17 let's take it step by step. It sounds like your 18 efforts have been vigorous and largely successful to 19 this point and we have no interest in stopping the 20 train if the train is moving so quickly. So wld get 21 out an order soon reflecting the fruits, I think, of 22 this conversation with you. Would you like to add |
| 1 that, Your Honor, I would expect that should be fine as 2 well. 3 THE COURT: Okay, well based on 4 representations a few moments ago about approximately 5 two weeks from this Friday to wrap up the terms of the 6 permit, it seems like September 2 would be more than 7 generous under that scenario for getting to that point; 8 is that your sense? 9 MS. PHILLIPS: Yes, sir. 10 MR. BUKHARI: Yes, sir. 11 MS. PHILLIPS: Yes, Your Honor. The two weeks 12 from Friday deadline is really key towards both of our 13 impending vacations, we want that done before we leave 14 on vacation. So -- and I think we're optimistic that 15 we can, you know, use our vacation leverage as a way to 16 get it done but -- but then, for example, Your Honor, 17 I'm going to Ecuador and the Galapagos for two weeks 18 and will really -- although my Blackberry does work, 19 it really is not that convenient. So that a week -- 20 so internal processes can be handled by the in-house 21 Exxon Mobile lawyer and hopefully it be all set up 22 for that, but if there's a few quirks that's what we'll                       | 1 anything more before we conclude, either of you? 2 MS. PHILLIPS: Just thank you. 3 MR. BUKHARI: Thank you, no, Your Honor. 4 THE COURT: Okay, thank you both. We stand 5 adjourned. 6 EUREKA DURR: This session of the 7 Environmental Appeals Board now stands adjourned. 8 (Whereupon at 10:17 a.m. the hearing 9 was concluded.) 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22   |
