A copy of the filed Motion for Default was sent to Respondent via first class certified mail, return receipt requested, on May 27, 2010.

Pursuant to the requirements set forth in 40 CFR § 22.7(a) regarding computation of time, Respondent was required to file a response to Complainant's Motion for Default by June 16, 2010. On July 15, 2010, the undersigned re-sent Respondent the returned unclaimed copy of the May 27, 2010 cover letter and Motion for Default via commercial overnight delivery.² However, on July 16, 2010, the receiver refused the delivery, and the cover letter and Motion for Default were returned to the undersigned on July 22, 2010.

Complainant therefore respectfully renews its request that Complainant's May 27, 2010 Motion for Default be granted and that the Presiding Officer issue a default order against Respondent pursuant to 40 CFR § 22.17(c).
