ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR NOTIFICATION FROM COURT AND PERMISSION TO RESPOND

By motion dated August 2, 1994, counsel for the Complainant filed a motion for "Notification From Court and Permission to Respond." The Complainant requests "notification from the Court to the extent the Court views Respondent's reply exchange outside the context of prehearing exchanges and to constitute a motion to preclude witnesses/testimony and/or a motion for discovery."

On August 5, 1994, Counsel for Respondent filed a reply to the motion. Respondent states that its prehearing exchange reply addresses only the issues raised in the Complainant's Prehearing Exchange, and offers objections and arguments that the Respondent may present to the Court by means of motions or other pleadings.

The Complainant's motion is denied. There is no issue before me to decide. The Judge will not undertake the task of counsel to review a party's pleadings and will not advise counsel as to what action to take.
