REPORT RECOMMENDING TERMINATION
OF ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCESS AND ASSIGNMENT OF A JUDGE FOR LITIGATION

The Order by Chief Administrative Law Judge Biro, dated February 13, 2018, that initiated this alternative dispute resolution (“ADR”) process provides for a termination date of April 16, 2018. The parties utilized the ADR process and engaged in settlement discussions throughout two joint conferences. However, at this time, it is agreed upon that the ADR process be terminated so that this case can be assigned to litigation. Accordingly, it is my recommendation to terminate the ADR process and promptly assign the case to a Judge for resolution through litigation.

The parties are encouraged to continue settlement discussions, on their own and as they deem appropriate, should they desire resolution of this matter through settlement. I appreciate and thank the parties for the professionalism and courtesy they demonstrated throughout the ADR process.
