

QUESTION: If EPA lists a new hazardous waste, must a generator or TSD owner/operator file a subsequent notification for generating or handling that new waste?

ANSWER: Pursuant to Section 3010, a generator, transporter or TSD facility owner/operator must renotify for newly listed wastes only if the Administrator specifically requires renotification. The Federal Register notice for any newly listed waste will explicitly state when renotification is required.

Source: Jill Weller
Research: Denise Wright