QUESTION: 264.93 (c) cites 144.8 of the Underground Injection Control (UIC) regulations for identifying underground sources of drinking water and exempted aquifers. According to the preamble to the April 1, 1983, Federal Register, however, which deconsolidates EPA's Consolidated Permit Regulations, the correct citation should be 144.7 (as changed from 122.35). If a State is applying for final authorization, should the State use 144.7 or 144.8?

ANSWER: The proper citation is 144.7; therefore, a State should use 144.7 when applying for RCRA final authorization.
