

QUESTION: What is the Agency's definition of electroplating?

ANSWER: In the background document for the 261.31 and 261.32 hazardous waste lists, electroplating is defined as "common and precious metals electroplating, anodizing, chemical conversion coating (i.e., coloring, chromating, phosphating and immersion plating), electroless plating, chemical etching and milling and printed circuit board manufacturing."