

Final Rules

all information necessary to perform any analysis or make any determination required under this rule (~~326 IAC 2-2~~) as follows:

(1) With respect to a source or modification to which this rule (~~326 IAC 2-2~~) applies, such information shall include:

(A) a description of the nature, location, design capacity, and typical operating schedule of the major stationary source or major modification, including specifications and drawings showing its design and plant layout;

(B) a detailed schedule for construction of the major stationary source or major modification; and

(C) a detailed description as to what system of continuous emission reduction is planned for the major stationary source or major modification, emission estimates, and any other information necessary to determine that best available control technology would be applied.

(2) Upon request of the commissioner, the owner or operator shall also provide information on:

(A) the air quality impact of the major stationary source or major modification, including meteorological and topographical data necessary to estimate such impact; and

(B) the air quality impact and the nature and extent of any or all general commercial, residential, industrial, and other growth which that has occurred since the baseline date in the area which that the major stationary source or major modification would affect.

Sec. 11. (a) The allowed emission rate for any regulated pollutant under this rule (~~326 IAC 2-2~~) shall not be affected in any manner by the following:

(1) That portion of a stack height exceeding good engineering practice, as established in 326 IAC 1-7, which that was not in existence by December 31, 1970.

(2) Any other dispersion technique not implemented before December 31, 1970.

(b) Subsection (a) of this section shall not apply with respect to stack heights in existence before December 31, 1970, or to dispersion techniques implemented prior to that date. (Air Pollution Control Board; 326 IAC 2-2-11; filed Mar 10, 1988, 1:20 p.m.; 11 IR 2401; filed Mar 23, 2001, 3:03 p.m.; 24 IR 2425)
