(1) BASIC DIRECT SOURCE FEES. (a) Each person issued a construction permit for a direct source shall pay the following basic fee:

5. $1,100, for revision of a construction permit when requested by the permit holder or the permit holder's agent unless the only reason for the revision is to make the source eligible for a registration operation permit.

Note: Once a construction permit has expired, it may no longer be revised, and the permit holder must obtain a new construction permit before proceeding.

6. $2,300 for coverage under a general construction permit issued to a part 70 source under s. NR 406.16.

7. $1,100 for coverage under a registration construction permit issued to a part 70 source under s. NR 406.17.
