Construction/Validation/Performance (Adam Harvey)

- Nothing new to report on construction, still awaiting the shipment of the 4B transducer, which should arrive last week of July or first week in August.
- URS is starting the quarterly groundwater sampling today, which should last for three weeks.
- URS has all the data through May, but no data for June. We have validated data through April.
- On 10 June, URS sent the November monthly progress report to the city and is awaiting comments. Stacey will review and advise Kim.
- URS sent out the draft monitoring well/extraction well installation report on 30 June. Kim is working on it.

General Discussion

- The technical meeting that was scheduled for 20 July has been cancelled until further notice.
