Dear Dr. Frey:

Thank you for your June 18, 2013, letter in which you provide the Clean Air Scientific Advisory Committee's response to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's Draft Plan for the Development of the Integrated Science Assessment for Nitrogen Oxides – Health Criteria, May 2013.

We greatly appreciate the advisory committee's constructive comments, and we are grateful for your help in ensuring that the EPA uses the best science to protect public health and the environment.

I look forward to continuing to work with you on important environmental challenges.

Sincerely,
