Dear Dr. Cox:

Thank you for your February 19, 2020, letter conveying the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency Clean Air Scientific Advisory Committee's review of the EPA Policy Assessment for the Review of the Ozone National Ambient Air Quality Standards (External Draft – October 2019).

I want to convey my appreciation to you and the CASAC members for your time and efforts. The CASAC's thorough review and comments will be very helpful in preparing the final policy assessment. Your comments will also be helpful as the agency moves into the rulemaking portion of the review. If you have any questions, please contact Erika Sasser at sasser.erika@epa.gov.

Thank you again for your thoughtful and constructive advice on this important topic.

Sincerely,
