Dear Dr. Henderson:

Thank you for your letter of August 30, 2007, regarding the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's Clean Air Scientific Advisory Committee's peer review of the "Draft Approach for Estimating Changes in Children's IQ from Lead Dust Generated During Renovation, Repair, and Painting in Residences and Child-Occupied Facilities" and the Office of Pollution Prevention and Toxics Dust Study titled "Draft Final Report on Characterization of Dust Lead Levels After Renovation, Repair, and Painting Activities."

Both documents were produced in support of EPA's Lead Renovation, Repair, and Painting rulemaking activity. The Agency is in the process of addressing the recommendations made by the Committee and will proceed with the best information available in the final rulemaking.

Again, thank you for your comments and recommendations concerning the documents.

Sincerely,

Stephen L. Johnson
