Dear Dr. Henderson:

I thank you and the other members of the Clean Air Scientific Advisory Committee Particulate Matter Review Panel for your comments on the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's Integrated Review Plan for the National Ambient Air Quality Standards for Particulate Matter (October 2007 draft). The Panel's consultation and advice, both during the public advisory teleconference meeting on November 30, 2007, and in your January 3, 2008, letter, have been very helpful to me and my staff as we work to finalize the review plan.

I look forward to the continuation of an effective and productive relationship between the CASAC and the Agency as we move forward with our review of the PM NAAQS.

Sincerely,

Stephen L. Johnson
